This lovely book is a must have for anyone who loves Yellowstone and the Old Faithful Inn. The photography is stunning and the history extremely interesting. I can't imagine having been one of the men who built the place over 1903-04. As someone who worked at Old Faithful Inn, this book has earned a place in my heart. My only complaint, which started out as minor, but as the book advanced became more annoying, and ultimately cost this book a star, is the teeny tiny typeface on all the pages that aren't the introduction or first pages of chapters. After a while, I felt like I needed a magnifying glass to keep reading and I'm young with good eyes.

The book was in excellent condition. Thanks.

Nice book. Informative. Great old photographs
